

-DO NOT BRING 2,3,4 PAGES TO THE EXAMINATION HALL-

Rules of examination and punishments for offences

1. Impersonation : Any person found impersonating a candidate for an examination as well as the person impersonated shall be suspended from the examination by the Supervisor. The impersonator if he/she is a candidate for an examination and the person impersonated will also be debarred from sitting any examination for a period of up to three years.
2. Possession of unauthorized material
  - 2.1 Any candidate found in possession of University examination stationery not made available to the candidate for the paper in question will be suspended from that examination and, if the stationery contains material relevant to the subject, he will be debarred from sitting any examination for a period of up to three years.
  - 2.2 Any candidate found in possession of other unauthorized material relevant to the subject will be suspended from that examination and may be debarred from sitting any examination for a period of up to two years.
  - 2.3 Any candidate found in possession of any other unauthorized material will be liable to suspension from that examination.
3. Copying : Any candidate found copying or found to have copied from an answer script of another candidate will be suspended from that examination and may be debarred from sitting any examination for a period of up to two years.
4. Speaking or communication : Any candidate found speaking to or communicating in any manner with any unauthorized person may be suspended from that paper by the Supervisor. Such a candidate is liable to be disqualified from that examination.
5. Disturbances : Any candidate who is guilty of disorderly conduct which disturbs the proper conduct of an examination will be suspended from that paper by the Supervisor. Such a candidate is liable to be disqualified from that examination.
6. Disobeying announcements : Any candidate who continues to write after the Supervisor has announced that candidates should stop writing is liable to be disqualified from that paper.
7. Aiding and abetting : Any person who aids and abets the commission of any of the acts referred to above shall be given the same punishment as that imposed on the person aided or abetted.